SISTER CAMILLE ORDNER, C.D.P.
Guidance Counselor

Guidance

With an eye to the future and personal concern, the guidance counselors strive to make students aware of the many roads and opportunities open. The counselors help make adjustments to school and personal life situations in the hope that students will eventually attain a state of mature self-guidance.

Spellbound, interested, or just plain bored?

MR. JOHN PROSPERI
Guidance Counselor

As Sister Aquinas says, "Make B. G. number one!"

Religion

The new generation is a questioning one and the religion department offers truth for doubts, security in the teaching of Christ and the Church, and loving understanding in the struggle with loneliness.

English

English offers courses which train each student to improve the ability to communicate clearly and effectively, to develop talent in writing both scholarly and creatively, and to increase skills for interpreting the English language intelligently and critically. It fosters personal growth and development by providing the study of key figures in literature with attention to backgrounds and growth of thought as expressed in the writings of carefully selected authors.

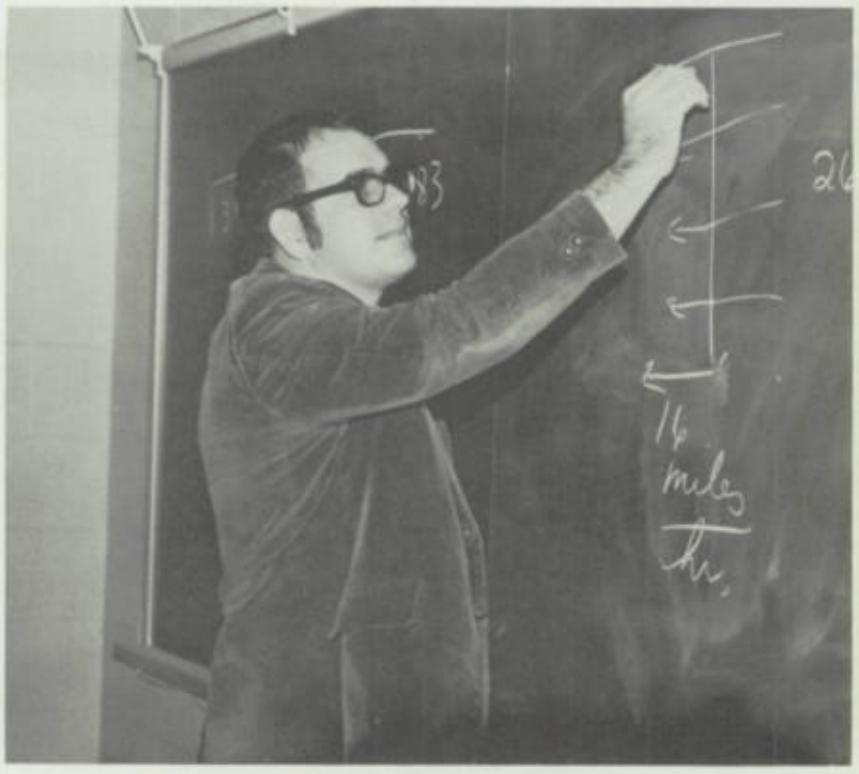
Math

Math aims to promote habits of precise expression and independent thinking. It provides opportunities which foster understanding of the basic axioms and fundamental concepts essential to solving problems in man's everyday experience. It prepares students for related fields of science, business, social science and mathematical professions in industry.



MR. LOREN IMLER

Business

Not only typing, but shorthand, bookkeeping, business law and math, help to prepare students for the challenging world of business. A sharp mind and a fast hand are necessary in this rapidly moving world. Secretarial studies in particular sets our students in the right direction for a career in the business world.

Library

The library, no longer just a storehouse of books and magazines, is now a haven for those interested in reading, listening and seeing. This is made possible by a well equipped audio-visual room with listening centers and a variety of supplementary aids for the use of the faculty and students. In other words, the library, always considered the "heart of the school," has taken on a new beat.

The library staff is constantly at the service of the students.

Memories,
windows to the past,
shed strong,
full light on the present,
and help us to see the joy in our lives.
Experiences,
happy times,
carefree times,
the times we feel
will never end,
until we view them
once again,
now as memories,
Dreams,
being dreamed
while we relive memories, while we experience things
for the first time, bridges what is,
with what was,
and what should be,
to mold our character,
our aims,
and most of all,
our future.

Too often, we are marked

Who says lunch never accomplishes anything?

This period is never long enough!

What is life
but dreams envisioned transformed into reality.

What good is life without dreams and memories acting together!

If we never dreamed we would not seek to accomplish what we have not done, to learn what we do not know, to grasp what is almost unattainable.

If we have no memories of the good
the inspirational Life would be a stagnant

Never moving on to

Although
the exciting present and mysterious future
hold our attention, we cannot ignore the past,
if we are to live purposefully.
The richness of past gives meaning for what is,
and what will be.
The world of the past as well as that of future challenges
our imagination,
and broadens our visions by showing us that we are not isolated in time and space
but,
related to all that has been.

Here, I don't want it, you take it!

We stand on the crossroads of life,
too young to understand,
yet
striving to be understood.
Too young to voice our opinions,
but
too concerned to remain silent.
It is a difficult time,
yet
a challenging one.
If we face this challenge, these times
will indeed be fruitful,
for we will learn the lessons of life.

Today,
with man's obsession
with the past and future,
let us not forget the present,
For it is the present
that opportunities arise,
that things are done,
that will affect the future.
It is now that we realize our ambitions.
It is today our dreams are accomplished.
If we live each day
to the fullest,
all our tomorrows will gleam
with hope,
and all our yesterdays
will be pleasant memories.

I thought exercising made you look more alive!

We came,
we learned,
and now,
it is time for us
to leave.
We look back,
and realizing
that through memories, we hold the past and never lose it completely,
we are happy, because we will always be a part
of B.G.
and B.G. will always be a part of us.
So now,
tearfully,
we say good-bye to Bishop Guilfoyle High School
and yet, we know that we have joy in our hearts,
because our love for our Alma Mater
will never fade.

Bishop Guilfoyle High School

PLEASANT VALLEY BOULEVARD

Altoona, Pennsylvania 16602

Dear Seniors of 1974:

Yesterday at Bishop Guilfoyle High School is gone. Today is slipping by with the speed of light. Tomorrow, beyond the school, is yours to live as you will. The issue of preparing for that tomorrow has been extremely joyful and yet very complex. When responsible independence is yours in the near future, I ask you to reflect and consider the life values learned and acquired here at Bishop Guilfoyle High School. Those ideals which are most important to you today will play a strong role in what you become as an adult in the world of tomorrow.

There are those who would say your education in Catholic schools has been sheltered and therefore limited. True enough, you have been lifted from the world. Lifted to be prepared. Prepared to recognize no limits other than man's duty to rest in God. Prepare to reach into the world, gather it together and offer a total gift of creation to the Creator.

Into the world of reality, the grain and the chaff, you are sent with a unifying factor which the world so desperately needs and so foolishly does not comprehend. That bond of the Holy Spirit will eventually tie all elements together.

Your four years as a class have provided numerous opportunities to give of yourselves to the school community as well as to have been nourished by it. Therefore, in the name of the school family which remains after your departure, I thank you. Bishop Guilfoyle Pride will live on because of your past, present and future accomplishments. Carry that Pride. Spread that Pride.

May God grant you the ability and means to attain your dreams of today.

Sincerely,

James F. Shapiro

Principal

BISHOP GUILFOYLE HIGH SCHOOL

PLEASANT VALLEY BOULEVARD

ALTOONA, PENNSYLVANIA 16602

We, the 1974 ACCOLADE staff, wish to extend sincere thanks to those who assisted in the publication of the yearbook.

Bishop James J. Hogan — for making our Cahtolic education possible.

Father James F. Skupien —for his active support, patience and interest, during the production of the book.

Sister Mary Aquinas —for her assistance in the completion of the Underclassman Section.

Faculty Members — for their tolerance.

Mr. Thomas Rolle and Lorei Studios — for photographical assistance.

Mr. Steve Suhey —for his help and representation of the Taylor Publishing Company.

Sister Mary Christine —for co-ordinating the yearbook at the Sixth Avenue Building.

Mrs. Bloomer, art instructor; Regis Campbell, cover design; Stuckeys' & Sons, title page; Therese Wolford and Nadine Waclo, art work.

And a great thanks to Sister Mary Rita, CSA, advisor, for her aid and guidance in the preparation of the book.

We would like to acknowledge the following who donated prizes for the highest solicitors:

He Is Not Dead

I cannot say, and I will not say,
That he is dead. He is just away.
With a cheery smile, and a wave of the hand,
He has wandered into an unknown land,
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since he lingers there.
And you —— oh, you who the wildest yearn
For an old time step, and the glad return,
Think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of Here.
Think of him still as the same, I say
He is not dead —— he is just away.

John Franco gains a first down in the Marauders' contest with Hollidaysburg at Mansion Park.

The 1973 football team is the epitome of what football is all about. Although this squad's victories cannot be counted on the scoreboard, they won their struggle with defeat. They learned the basic principles of life — accepting defeat while knowing the sweetness of victory. What this team gave to football and what football gave in return will remain in their hearts forever.

Tennis, Anyone?

Mary Griggs — captain

Jamie Madden — 7-1 record

This year introduced the first varsity sport for girls — tennis, consisting of sixteen members and coached by Guy Little. They were victorious in five of their nine matches for a winning season. Matches were played at Logan Tennis Courts and hosting schools. Jamie Madden and Mary Griggs will be the first girls to graduate with letters in a varsity sport from Bishop Guilfoyle. Prospects for the Future look good, for the bulk of the team was sophomores. There will be at least six returning letterholders to guarantee a successful season.
